

ADDA BAITHAK · PRINTABLE GUIDE

Bengali saree & dhuti draping card

শাড়ি ও ধুতি

A take-away guide for planning offline. Use the live page for changing notices, access and timetables.

Prepared by Adda Baithak

Build date: 22 October 2026

AT A GLANCE

Plan before you leave

A practical card for festive dressing

Choose a comfortable drape for the day

Keep pins and a small safety kit

Route or day plan

#	Stop or focus	Practical note
1	Bengali saree: drape and secure the pleats	Check the live guide for current route and access
2	Dhuti: practise the fold before a long day	Check the live guide for current route and access
3	Choose footwear suitable for walking	Check the live guide for current route and access

Live guide: https://addabaithak.com/traditions/how-to-wear-bengali-saree/?utm_source=pdf&utm_medium=guide&utm_campaign=saree-dhuti

Food, safety and checklist

Practical notes

- Ask a family member or local draper for help.
- Keep a spare safety pin and comfortable footwear.

Checklist

- ☐ Phone and power bank
- ☐ Water and a cooling cloth
- ☐ Photo ID where required
- ☐ Cash and a payment backup
- ☐ Comfortable footwear
- ☐ Check the latest local notice

Continue online

https://addabaithak.com/traditions/how-to-wear-bengali-saree/?utm_source=pdf&utm_medium=guide&utm_campaign=saree-dhuti

Independent guide, not an official or sponsored listing. Verify with organisers before travelling.