

ADDA BAITHAK · PRINTABLE GUIDE

Kali Puja & Chandannagar circuit

কালীপূজা ও চন্দননগর

A take-away guide for planning offline. Use the live page for changing notices, access and timetables.

Prepared by Adda Baithak

Build date: 22 October 2026

AT A GLANCE

Plan before you leave

Kali Puja & Diwali: Sun, 8 Nov 2026

Jagaddhatri Puja: 16–19 Nov 2026

Best approach: one compact circuit per evening

Route or day plan

#	Stop or focus	Practical note
1	Dakshineswar (evening)	Check the live guide for current route and access
2	Naihati Boro Maa (late night; heavy crowds)	Check the live guide for current route and access
3	Thanthania Kalibari	Check the live guide for current route and access
4	Firinghi Kalibari	Check the live guide for current route and access
5	Kalighat	Check the live guide for current route and access
6	Lake Kalibari	Check the live guide for current route and access
7	Barasat	Check the live guide for current route and access
8	Natunpara (since 1956)	Check the live guide for current route and access
9	Neogi Bagan (roadside lighting)	Check the live guide for current route and access
10	Circus Math Sarbojanin	Check the live guide for current route and access
11	Charabagan Balak Sangha	Check the live guide for current route and access
12	Tematha Sarbojanin (tall idol)	Check the live guide for current route and access
13	Ambika Athletic Club (lighting)	Check the live guide for current route and access
14	Subhaspally Sarbojanin (2 min from station)	Check the live guide for current route and access
15	Madhyanchal Sarbojanin (since 1971)	Check the live guide for current route and access
16	Fatakgora Sarbojanin	Check the live guide for current route and access
17	Khalisani	Check the live guide for current route and access
18	Helapukur Sarbojanin (gold ornaments)	Check the live guide for current route and access

Live guide: https://addabaithak.com/kali-puja/?utm_source=pdf&utm_medium=guide&utm_campaign=kali-chandannagar

Food, safety and checklist

Chandannagar is known for its sweets, especially the jolbhora talshansh sandesh. Shops are not named until verified.

Practical notes

- Firecracker rules are set by the West Bengal Pollution Control Board each year; check the official notice.
- Expect road closures near major pujas after dark.
- Carry water.
- Follow police directions.
- Go on Saptami or Ashtami afternoon for lighter crowds; Navami is the main puja day
- Last trains back to Howrah run late on puja nights but are packed; check the timetable
- Wear walking shoes — circuits are 4–8 km on foot

Checklist

- ☐ Phone and power bank
- ☐ Water and a cooling cloth
- ☐ Photo ID where required
- ☐ Cash and a payment backup
- ☐ Comfortable footwear
- ☐ Check the latest local notice

Continue online

https://addabaithak.com/kali-puja/?

utm_source=pdf&utm_medium=guide&utm_campaign=kali-chandannagar

Independent guide, not an official or sponsored listing. Verify with organisers before travelling.