

ADDA BAITHAK · PRINTABLE GUIDE

Shantiniketan weekend

শান্তিনিকেতন

A take-away guide for planning offline. Use the live page for changing notices, access and timetables.

Prepared by Adda Baithak

Build date: 22 October 2026

AT A GLANCE

Plan before you leave

Best time: Oct–Mar

Ideal stay: weekend

about 160 km from Kolkata

Route or day plan

#	Stop or focus	Practical note
1	Uttarayan complex & Rabindra Bhavana museum	Check the live guide for current route and access
2	Chhatimtala	Check the live guide for current route and access
3	Kala Bhavana murals	Check the live guide for current route and access
4	Sonajhuri Haat (Saturday craft market)	Check the live guide for current route and access
5	Khoai	Check the live guide for current route and access
6	Amar Kutir	Check the live guide for current route and access

Live guide: https://addabaithak.com/explore-bengal/shantiniketan/?utm_source=pdf&utm_medium=guide&utm_campaign=shantiniketan

Food, safety and checklist

Local Bengali meals and seasonal sweets

Practical notes

- Visva-Bharati is a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2023.
- Confirm museum access and market timing locally.

Checklist

- ☐ Phone and power bank
- ☐ Water and a cooling cloth
- ☐ Photo ID where required
- ☐ Cash and a payment backup
- ☐ Comfortable footwear
- ☐ Check the latest local notice

Continue online

https://addabaihak.com/explore-bengal/shantiniketan/?

utm_source=pdf&utm_medium=guide&utm_campaign=shantiniketan

Independent guide, not an official or sponsored listing. Verify with organisers before travelling.